RIGHT TO SELL CITY STREET

Attorney Kimball Asserts Council Can Do So if it So Desires.

MERELY A QUESTION OF EXPEDIENCY

Mayor Macrae, on the Other Hand, Insists City Cannot Sell Street on Application of Messrs. Cooper and Keppner.

"Has the city the right to vacate a portion of a public thoroughfare and sell the same to a private individual? City solicitor Kimball takes the position that the city has such a right, provided it does not abridge or interfere with the rights of the general public or property owners in the vicinity. Mayor Macrae, on the other hand, contends that the city has the right to vacate a portion of public streets or any portion thereof.

This question has arisen in the application of J. K. Cooper and Julius Keppner, abutting property owners, to purchase from the city a portion of Eleventh street which extends from Fourth to Fifth avenue and ends at the latter point. The proposition of Messrs. Cooper and Keppner is to purchase a strip fifty feet in width, leaving a driveway or alley of sixteen feet. The price offered is $100.

City Solicitor Kimball, in discussing this matter yesterday, said: "It is not for me to say whether the city ought to sell the portion of the street or whether the amount offered is adequate. I merely assert that the right to vacate and sell this particular piece of street is unquestioned. This matter appears to me that it is not in general use and to close it up entirely would not inconvenience the general public. It is not out of the way for the city to consider this proposal in a commercial sense, if it needs the money. If $100 can be secured for the property, or whatever amount it is worth, the funds would not come amiss."

The proposal of Messrs. Cooper and Keppner has been referred to the committee of the whole of the city council and probably will be acted upon at the meeting next Monday night.

SWENEY WANTS HIS LIBERTY

String Habeas Corpus Proceedings Against Sheriff. Mark A. Sweeney, who married in this city Mrs. Zannetta Ball after she had secured a divorce from R. A. Ball in Omaha, which divorce was later set aside, yesterday commenced habeas corpus proceedings in the district court against Sheriff Ed Canning.

Ball had Sweeney arrested on a charge of wilfully and knowingly marrying the wife of another, but the preliminary hearing before Justice Gardner resulted in Sweeney being discharged, there being nothing in the Iowa laws to prevent persons from remarrying immediately after being divorced. The grand jury, however, returned an indictment against Sweeney and he was arrested. He secured his release on bonds in the sum of $200.

Now, in instituting habeas corpus proceedings, Sweeney alleges he is being unlawfully kept under restraint by Sheriff Canning and asks that he be given his liberty. The indictment against Sweeney has never been quashed, although the case has never been brought to trial. It is inferred that the habeas corpus proceedings brought by Sweeney is for the purpose of attacking the legality of the indictment.

When the divorce which she had obtained was set aside, after her marriage to Sweeney was found void, Ball found herself in the predicament of having two husbands, and the troubles resulting from this state of affairs brought about numerous suits and counter suits in the various courts of this city between Ball, Sweeney and Mrs. Ball-Sweeney-Ball.

Local friends received notification of the marriage Monday evening and Mr. and Mrs. Smith arrived in the city yesterday and confirmed it. Miss Smith went to Denver about a month ago to visit friends and on her way home stopped in Lincoln, where she was met by Mr. Smith according to previous arrangement. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Council Bluffs, but for the present are residing in Omaha.

N. Y. Plumbing Co. Tel. 50. Night, at Greecy Street Practically Ruined. Philip Friedman, proprietor of the grocery store at 140 West Broadway, which was practically wiped out by fire at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, stated that his stock was valued at something over $100 and that it was insured for $100. He did not think there would be much salvage. The dense smoke made it hard for the firemen to locate the blaze and a large amount of water had to be poured into the store before the fire was extinguished.

The building is owned by Mrs. Fannie M. Van Huskirk and the same is said to be well protected by insurance. The damage by smoke to the furnishings in the lodge rooms of the Macabees on the second floor was found yesterday to be slight. Mr. Friedman yesterday was unable to account for the fire, as everything about the place appeared to be all right when he locked up the store Monday evening.

Economy washed egg coal was never named better, for it is certainly economical. It leaves a small amount of ashes when burned, makes a good hot fire, and it is a lasting coal and does not make as much smoke as most soft coals. Council Bluffs Coal and Ice company. Phone 72.

TALLOW CANDELE BURGLAR BEYOND SECURES A LITTLE CASH AND A BOTTLE OF WHISKY.

The "tallow candle" burglar, who so far has successfully evaded the strenuous efforts of the Council Bluffs police force to capture him, secured a little cash and a bottle of whisky Monday night. The residence of Sylvester Dye at 317 Fifth avenue and Dr. V. L. Treynor at 317 Third avenue received a call from him.

At the Dye residence the burglar secured $100 in a pocketbook belonging to the hired girl. Entrance was secured by prying open one of the windows on the ground floor, every room on which was found to have been thoroughly ransacked. Spots of candle grease were found on the carpets and furniture. Falling to find any more valuables, the burglar proceeded to the room of the servant girl, on the second floor, where he secured her pocketbook without awakening her. Members of the family were up in attendance on a sick child, and the burglar, evidently discovering this, made no attempt to enter any more rooms on the second floor, but took his departure.

GIRL FORGER IS SENTENCED. Miss Jacobs of Mount Pleasant is given indeterminate term.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 27.—Elsie Jacobs, the 18-year-old college student of Mount Pleasant, Ia., who attempted to swindle the National bank of Galzburg out of $1,000 by means of a bogus check, was sentenced in the circuit court at Galzburg today to an indeterminate term in the penitentiary.

Miss Jacobs is an unusually attractive girl and was a well known party girl in September she appeared in Monmouth and registered at Moonmouth college. Two days later she attempted to cash a forged order for $500 on the First National bank of that city. When the officers of the bank refused to give her the money she left the town and went to Galzburg, where she entered Knox college and by her clever ways succeeded in getting an endorsement to a check on the First National bank of that city. She cashed the check, but was arrested as she was leaving the city.

Iowa Stock Judges Busy. AMES, Ia., Nov. 27.—(Special.)—The stock judging team which will represent the Iowa State college at the International Live Stock show, Chicago, December 2 to 5, is spending this week visiting farms and stock ranches in Illinois and Wisconsin in their final preparation for the contest. The team is composed of R. E. Drennon of Corning, Ia.; H. G. McMillan of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; D. H. Miller of Nebraska; E. N. Wentworth of State Center, Ia.; and B. W. Crossley of Council Bluffs, Ia.

Last week the team was weakened by the withdrawal of its strongest member and one of the strongest judges ever chosen at Iowa State college. Mr. J. C. Minkler withdrew because of a change in the rules making his eligibility a question. Prof. J. Kennedy, who was trained the team, considered Mr. Minkler the best man on his team, and especially so in horses. At Kansas City, where the team scored this fall, he had a higher percentage on horses than ever was made at the Chicago show. Miller takes his place.

Sale of Weaver Brick Yard Annulled. H. W. Binder, as trustee of the estate of former Councilman John P. Weaver, bankrupt, has filed suit in the United States court to set aside the sale of Weaver's brick yard and machinery by the First National bank of this city.

Weaver was indebted to the bank in the sum of $11,000 for which the bank held mortgages on the brick yards and machine. He also had a mortgage on the building an injunction restraining the bank from foreclosing these mortgages, but the order came too late, as it was asserted the property had been disposed of. In his petition Trustee Binder alleges that the property was worth at least $7,000, whereas the bank is said to have sold it for $2,500. He asks that the bank be required to turn over to him this $2,500, together with $900 which Weaver had on deposit at the bank and all other sums the bank is alleged to have collected from certain debtors of the bankrupt, that the same may be used for the benefit of all of Weaver's creditors.

CORPORATIONS IGNORE LAW

Many of Them Have Not Filed Articles with the Secretary of State.

GREAT WESTERN AND PULLMAN GUILTY

Republicans Majority on All Offices Except Governor and Lieutenant Governor Fully Up to the Usual Figures.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Nov. 27.—(Special.)—Both the Pullman Palace Car company and the Chicago Great Western railroad are illegally doing business in the state of Iowa, according to the secretary of state's office. Neither of these companies has ever filed with the secretary of state a certified copy of its articles of incorporation as required by law, accompanying the filing with the necessary fee. It is also stated in the office of the secretary of state that the condition as to these two big corporations is only typical of the condition that exists as to a large number of smaller ones, and called for some legislation on the part of the next general assembly to remedy matters. It is further asserted that there is as much or more ground for the legislature appointing a commission to entirely rewrite and revise the corporation laws of the state than there was for the appointment of a commission to study the insurance laws of the state. The condition as to the corporation laws will be made the basis of a request of the next legislature to appoint such a commission to take up the problem at the session and finish it there. It is asserted by the secretary of state's office that the corporation laws of Iowa are cumbersome and unwieldy; that they are too general in their application. One of the grounds for complaint is that corporations can violate the laws without incurring any authority to bring them to justice. They are required to file certified copies of their articles of incorporation before they can legally do business in the state, but if they do not file such certified copies, there is no appropriation for paying the expenses of bringing them to justice and neither the secretary of state's office nor any other office in the state has authority to go out and look up evidence or ascertain if there are corporations doing business that have not complied with the laws of the state.

CANVASS OF VOTE COMPLETED.

The completion of the canvass of the recent election on state officers by the executive council shows that all the officers, with the exception of governor and lieutenant governor, received the same plurality as was accorded the governor in the votes of 1901 and 1902. State Treasurer Morrow received the highest plurality, 54,142, and Railroad Commissioner W. L. Eaton received the smallest, 74,477. The vote on governor is canvassed by the legislature. The pluralities in detail received by the republican candidates on all but governor and lieutenant governor were as follows: Secretary of State Hayward, 28,475; Auditor of State Carroll, 28,100; Treasurer of State Morrow, 54,142; Attorney General Byrnes, 28,788; Superintendent Riggs, 28,288; Supreme Court Justice, 28,549; Supreme Judge Sherwin, 28,549; Supreme Court Justice Crockett, 28,549; Railroad Commissioner Palmer, 74,477; Railroad Commissioner Eaton, 74,477.

For each office, aside from the vote for the republican candidates, the following were there about 16,000 votes distributed among the socialists, prohibitionists and populists, the socialists leading the prohibitionists slightly. Each of the populist candidates received a little over 200, the prohibitionists a little over 7,000 and the socialists a little over 3,000.

KANSAS WEDDING STOPPED.

The marriage of Miss Myrtle Huff of Home City, Kan., to L. M. Dill of the same city was interrupted today by the father of the young woman stepping in just before the would-be groom returned from the court house with the marriage license, and a preacher. The young people had eloped from their home and came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swinford at 1088 Fifteenth street in this city where they had arranged for the wedding. The couple were successful today in locating the young woman at the home of the Swinfords. She was found but a few minutes before Dill returned from the court house with the license. Miss Huff gave her father a long talk tonight by her father, who says she is not of age.
